Introducing Online Safeguarding Training

The Church Of England has recently introduced new online training for a basic level of safeguarding awareness. Please check to see whether it is recommended or required for you to attend.

Vacancy: Youth Worker - St Peter's, Hale

The position would be ideally suited to someone with an interest in Pioneer ministry, as the opportunities to develop new contacts and ministries in our community are extensive. There will also be the opportunity to identify, train and develop lay leaders to offer ongoing support to young people's ministry.

Vacancy: Parish Development Worker - Mottram Parish

The heart of this new role is about broadening ministries beyond Sunday worship and deepening discipleship so that more people identify and feel able to serve according to their gifts and passions.

Vacancy: PreSchool Manager - St Michaels, Chester

St Michael's PreSchool are looking to recruit a qualified and enthusiastic person to manage the team that runs this established and thriving PreSchool which operates daily at St Michael's Church, Newton. There are currently eight members of the staff team. The manager will relate to a small Management Committee.

Pilot gym membership scheme

A pilot corporate membership of Brio leisure centres has been set up under the company name 'Church of England.' This is open to any employee or office holder, so if you are interested in joining you just need to visit a Brio leisure centre, show your payslip and say that your company is registered as the Church of England. (You may also need to explain that 'Chester Diocesan Board of Finance' is part of the Church of England.) If you already have Brio membership you can amend it by visiting a centre and completing a Membership Update form to be moved onto the WorkFit membership scheme and have your payment schedule reduced.

Ride and Stride - 9 September 2017

Now the time to start thinking about getting involved in this year's Ride and Stride, the event which offers the opportunity to visit unique historic churches, get some exercise and raise money to help save historic churches, chapels and meeting houses for future generations by helping to fund urgent repairs and the installation of modern facilities.

Education Sunday - 10 September 2017

We would like to invite headteachers, staff, governors, children and families to join us to celebrate Education Sunday. This is an opportunity to rejoice in all of the work that goes on in schools across the Diocese and to say thank you to those involved. It will be especially poignant this year as we say a final goodbye to Jeff Turnbull, Diocesan Director of Education for 26 years and commission our new Director of Education, Chris Penn. Location: Chester Cathedral.

Tweet, tweet: Getting Going with Twitter - 26 September 2017

A half-day session for those who would like to tweet and for those who swim in the shallow end of Twitter but would like to go deeper.

Conversations about Mental Health - 6 October 2017

For the third consecutive year we are linking with World Mental Health Day (October 10th) by organising a day for picking up conversations on mental health issues, sharing experiences and resources. The day will build confidence amongst the delegates in their engagement with mental health matters.
