These courses are for those who are passionate about serving children and young people and would like to learn more with others and grow in their reflective practice. There are no academic entry requirements for the courses but you do need to be actively involved in children's or youth ministry in a church context, and have your church minister's support plus an acceptable enhanced DBS disclosure.

Cost

£750 for the validated course. This includes accommodation and meals for each weekend. If you do not want validation, or cost is an issue, please contact us. Unfortunately fees are not refundable once the course has begun.

NB: The usual form of communication with all students is via e-mail. Internet access and basic computer and word processing skills are required for students who undertake the University work on this course. Please sign here to confirm you fulfil this requirement:
