New DAC Secretary

Caroline Hilton has been appointed as the new Diocesan Advisory Committee Secretary for the Diocese of Chester. Prior to her appointment, Caroline was the Assistant to the DAC Secretary, a role which she held for 8 years. To fill the gap left by Caroline's promotion, we are pleased to announce that Katy Purvis has been appointed to the role of Assistant to the DAC Secretary. Together, Caroline and Katy make a great team and they look forward to helping parishes across the Diocese.

New Art Guidance Note

The Church of England's Church Buildings Council has published new guidance on 'Commissioning New Art', to help guide parishes through their consideration of why they want to introduce new art and to have a rigorous commissioning process.

Vacancy: Part time Church Youth Worker

St Boniface, Bunbury, has an exciting position for a Church Youth Worker to develop and support our vision of a vibrant Christian youth community in the local community.

The Long Haul: developing resilience in ministry and life - 7 March 2018

Most of us will serve in public ministry for decades, not just years. How do we flourish and grow on this long journey, rather than merely survive? This event is designed to help us understand our needs as travellers through the landscape of licensed ministry, and suggest how we might sustain ourselves.

Re-imagining Remembrance and Armistice in a Warring World - 17 May 2018

One hundred years on from the 'War to end Wars', the world remains riven by conflict and society continues to reach for rituals to remember old and recent wars, as well as acts of terror. The changing shape of Church and British society raises questions about how best to remember the dead of the past one hundred years.
