

Church School Headteacher and Senior Leader Conference 2018

22nd – 23rd November
(with option of day only on 23rd November)

The Park Royal Hotel, Stretton, Warrington, WA4 4NS

Brave leadership

With guest speakers Will Ryan, Bishop Stephen Cottrell (Bishop of Chelmsford) and Bishop Libby Lane (Bishop of Stockport)

This year's conference is an opportunity for our church school leaders to explore Brave Leadership in all its contexts.

With our church schools surrounded by an ever changing educational landscape and pressures from differing views of society there has never been a more important time for brave leaders within our schools. The main conference day (23rd November starting at 9.30am) is designed to support church school leaders as they consider this within their own context and that of the wider church school family.

Bishop Stephen will start the day with an address on our theme and this will then be followed by workshops on various topics such as Valuing All God's Children (the Church of England's Guidance on challenging Homophobic, biphobic, and transphobic bullying), the new SIAMS framework and dealing with difficult circumstances as a church school leader. In the afternoon we will hear from our key note speaker Will Ryan (Independent Thinking) author of 'Leadership with a Moral Purpose', 'Inspirational Teachers, Inspiration Learners' and 'The Working Class: Poverty, Education and Alternative Voices'

Twilight workshop and overnight stay – 22nd November

In a change to our usual programme we are also offering the opportunity for you to join us the night before (for a twilight workshop 4.30pm) on spiritual leadership followed by a time for reflection led by Bishop Libby (Bishop of Stockport) and a conference dinner (with time to network and use the leisure facilities of the hotel). This event is also open to any member of your senior leader leadership team and so you could take this opportunity to come and have time away from school to work and plan together.
