NOTES

1. The main activities and areas of responsibility of the Committee for Ministry include:
 - Vocation and Selection of Ordinands
 - Regional Training Partnership (RTP) including All Saints Centre for Mission and Ministry Course
 - Women in Ministry
 - Continuing Ministerial Development and Review
 - Initial Ministerial Education
 - Reader Ministry
 - Pastoral Worker Ministry
 - Resourcing leadership and discipleship
 - Self-Supporting Ministry
 - Spirituality
2. Nominations: A nomination form for candidates appears overleaf. The form must be signed by a proposer and seconder who should be members of Diocesan Synod. The candidate need not be a member of Diocesan Synod. The candidate must make a signed statement of consent, indicating willingness to serve on the committee.
3. In order to assist electors in their choice, candidates may make short factual statements about themselves (e.g. previous service on Diocesan committees and other organisations) for inclusion in the voting papers.
4. In the event that there are more nominations than places for representatives of a particular house, a postal ballot will be conducted, and the results announced in time for the first meeting of the committee in 2019.
5. Any queries regarding the procedure for election should be addressed to the Diocesan Secretary.
