How to select grant funders

Pause Point questions

How to research grant-making trust websites in five steps
- How could you briefly capture key information to share with others?
- How will key documents be filed? And shared?

Considerations for the PCC to discuss, including moral ethics, T's and C's, and effort vs outcome for the best approach
- What considerations do you need to discuss at the PCC?

How to gain knowledge from other sources, including the charity commission website, trust directly, others who have applied
- Are there any trusts to call/email for clarification or advice?
- How can I find others (e.g. churches, halls), who have applied to the same trust?
- Who could help gather this research?

Wider context of a fundraising mix: grants, Christian giving, major donors and community and individuals (such as appeals and events)
- What's the right fundraising mix for your church context, project, time?
- Who needs to be part of this discussion?
- Have you thought about ways to save money as well as raise money?
- What could you do differently?

For more information, go to www.chester.anglican.org and search for 'Fundraising'

Have you completed this short course? We need your help to shape and expand this resource to better meet your needs. Please offer comments, ideas, and offers of help by completing a short survey here.